Policy document on E-Governance

With the change of environment and other sectors communication technology is being used in every sphere of life. Knowing the importance of ICT in today's era institution have decided to use it. The advantages provided by using e-governance in education sector are too many. The changing demands of stakeholders of the institution has forced us to implement e-governance.

Objectives of the policy:

1. Implementation of e-governance will enhance the efficiency of the institution.
2. To reduce time and cost of administration
3. To maintain transparency, and to serve better and timely services to the stakeholders.

Policy:

The management after knowing the importance of e-governance in the institution, they have provided and shown interest to implement e-governance in institution. They strongly believes that only technology can enhance the efficiency in the work force. E-governance can play a vital role in achieving the objectives of the institution. Looking at this parameter we have applied E-governance in the following section

1. In the Examinations

In the year 2017-18 first time university conducted and delivered the question paper through online mode. For Paperless communication between university and college, university has developed it's own software for delivery of students exam Seat Numbers, Examination results, exam question paper. College Exam section uses university software to download the seat numbers, results, hall-tickets and exam question papers. Through this software, we can generate various reports-

2. Finance and Accounts

In Jan 2016 Maharashtra government has introduced e-governance in administration section to collect the colleges salary bill. For that purpose Govt. launched the E-Sevarth Pranali software. Through this software Government collects Colleges Bills. College office superintendent make advance request for next month's Salary budget through HTE – Sevarth Pranali (a government software portal). According to requested figure hard copy is submitted to regional Joint Director. Later on salary of teaching & non-teaching staff is credited in respective bank account of an employee.
